ABOUT JON

Jon's practice covers a broad spectrum of corporate transactions including mergers and acquisitions, private equity & venture capital investments, joint ventures, and restructuring.

Before joining Drew & Napier in 2015, Jon worked in leading Singapore and international law firms where he advised on a wide range of notable domestic and cross-border transactions in sectors such as technology, financial institutions, transport, energy, and infrastructure. Jon has also advised on commercial contracts and financing matters when on secondment at a major Singapore-listed real estate and hospitality company. Jon regularly assists clients on their general corporate matters such as compliance with the SGX listing rules and on employment matters.

As part of his practice, Jon works closely with investors, multinational corporations and family groups on their regional transactions in South-east Asia.
