ABOUT LEENA PINSLER

Leena's practice areas have involved Banking & Finance, General Corporate, Mergers & Acquisitions, Funds as well as the India Desk.

She headed Drew's Corporate & Finance Department from 1998 to 1999. She also has long and in-depth experience in legal matters relating to India having been instrumental in establishing Drew & Napier's India Desk in 1994, soon after the landmark liberalisation of India's economy in 1991.

From 2014 to 2018, she taught a course on Indian Business Law at the National University of Singapore. Leena was made an Associate of the Institute of South Asian Studies in 2006. This followed her authorship of a book on the Comprehensive Economic Cooperation Agreement for the business community.

EXPERIENCE

Leena has advised on a number of matters such as:

- Bank and corporate mergers and acquisitions
- Advising on REITs and business trusts. She acted for the underwriters in Singapore's first real estate investment trust, CapitaMall Trust
- Establishment of private equity and retail funds and confirming compliance with investment mandate before disbursement of funds
- Advice on various cross-border investments
- Advice on several financing and corporate structures with an Indian element. She acted in relation to a proposed joint venture involving a $1.2 billion investment in SEZs, townships, malls and commercial developments in India.
