ABOUT MERYL

Meryl is a litigator and a Director in both the Dispute Resolution and Intellectual Property (IP) Departments. Meryl is one of the leading up-and-coming practitioners in litigation in Singapore and is highly regarded amongst her peers. Particularly well-versed in corporate commercial disputes involving shareholders, IP, digital media, video games, entertainment, and technology disputes.

Meryl's distinctive competency leads her to act in many complex local and cross border litigation and arbitrations involving infringement of patents, trademarks and copyright, passing off, breaches of confidential information, oppression, breach of director's duties, defamation and employment.

Many of her clients come from the media, video games, sports, F&B, technology, and biopharmaceutical industries. Her clients include high net worth individuals, media personalities, listed companies as well as international and household names.

Meryl graduated with a double degree, Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting) (Distinction) from the University of New South Wales in Sydney, Australia in 2007.

Meryl was admitted as an Australian Lawyer in 2008. She joined Drew & Napier in 2008 as an International Lawyer and was called to the Singapore Bar in January 2011.

In 2019, Meryl was appointed to the panel of experts ("Expert Panellist") for the World IP Organisation's ("WIPO") Fast-Track Intellectual Property Dispute Resolution Procedure for Consumer Fairs. She is also a fellow of the Singapore Institute of Arbitrators.

EXPERIENCE

Here is a sample of the matters which Meryl has been involved in:

Intellectual Property Disputes

- Lead counsel acting for Riot Games Inc in respect of disputes against NetEase Interactive, a leading video game developer and publisher concerning copyright infringements and the passing off of Riot's world-renowned first-person shooter video game Valorant. The competing video games in question are widely played across the globe, with players going into millions and where the client's game (Valorant) has amassed a very significant following (based on general internet checks, roughly 20+ million players over 30 days, about 2 million active players a day in 2022) and has international professional gamers competing in pro-esports leagues.
- Successfully acted for Ila Technologies Pte Ltd, an industry leader and manufacturer of lab-grown diamonds with the largest diamond growing facility in the world, in a patent infringement suit commenced by Element Six Technologies Ltd, a subsidiary of the De Beers Group at the High Court of Singapore and thereafter at the Court of Appeal - [2023] SGCA 5. The proceedings included a counterclaim by Ila Technologies Pte Ltd to revoke Element Six Technologies Ltd's patents in the Singapore High Court. Director Meryl Koh worked closely with the clients and the expert witnesses to learn and understand the technology behind the patents which involved areas of chemistry, physics, complex material science and mathematics. As a testament to her abilities as an advocate and a solicitor, she was also chosen to deliver the oral opening speeches for both the factual and technical tranches of the trial, against top senior counsel appointed by Element Six Technologies Ltd.

- Represented V V Technology Pte Ltd, an international internet technology company providing solutions and services to consumers and businesses using AI Technology, in an opposition at the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore's (IPOS) trademark registry and appeal in the Singapore High Court against Twitter Inc. in respect of the client's application for their hummingbird logo and trademark [HC/TA 4/2022]. The client is developing an up-and-coming super mobile App as well as enterprise and work management platforms.
- Successfully represented TWG Tea Company Pte Ltd ("TWG Tea"), a subsidiary of public listed OSIM International Ltd and a home-grown international brand famous for its luxury tea boutiques and salons in HC/S799/2017 and wrestled ownership of TWG Tea's Domain Name from a former office holder. This Suit also involved allegations of malicious falsehood and conspiracy against TWG Tea and its incumbent office holders. On 3 May 2019, the High Court rendered Judgment in favour of TWG Tea for its claims for its Domain Name and dismissed all of the Defendant's counterclaims. (Singapore High Court case of TWG Tea Company Pte Ltd v Murjani Manoj Mohan [2019] SGHC 117)
- Successfully represented a leading private education chain as lead counsel in a private prosecution proceeding for copyright infringement of media/digital works.
- Advised a Non-Fungible Tokens (NFTs)-linked art trading platform on IP infringement issues.
- Acted for a leading pharmaceutical company in a patent infringement dispute under the Singapore Health Products Act.
- Acting for a leading FinTech start-up on issues concerning breach of IP and confidentiality.
- Advised a leading high-tech logistics provider on IP infringement by a software company.
- Advising home-grown and well-known F&B brands on potential IP infringement and shareholder disputes.
- Advising a local high-tech printing company on multi-jurisdictional patent infringement issues.
- Represented Becton Dickinson Medical (S) Pte Ltd ("Becton Dickinson"), a global leading medical technology company, in a patent infringement suit commenced by B. Braun Melsungen AG ("B. Braun") in HC/Suit 655/2018, in relation to medical catheters. Becton Dickinson had also resisted B Braun's application to amend its patent in Suit and had counterclaimed for, inter alia, a declaration of non-infringement and a declaration that B. Braun's patent is invalid.
- Successfully represented Sentosa Development Corporation, a statutory board, in Suit 1084/2014 involving use of the well-known SENTOSA trade mark. This action also involved Rule 13 of the Trade Mark Rules, governing inter alia the registration of a mark which bears the name or initials of any government body or statutory board.
- Represented TWG Tea against T2 Singapore in a trademark infringement and passing off matter in respect of TWG Tea's trademarks associated with six of their luxury tea blend names (HC/S633/2017).
- Represented TWG Tea in ongoing matters before the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore (IPOS) in respect of opposition filed by T2 Singapore in respect of trademarks associated with TWG Tea's luxury tea blend names. Successfully obtained a rare order for a confidentiality club to be formed in opposition proceedings for TWG Tea's confidential information.
- Represented Novartis AG and Novartis (Singapore) for patent infringement relating to their innovative drugs including patents for the treatment of gastro-intestinal stromal tumours.
- Represented a Singapore subsidiary of a leading listed American manufacturing company to invalidate and revoke a patent relating to technology in the marine and offshore engineering industry.
- A patent infringement action representing Sanofi Aventis in Suit 305/2010/Y for alleged infringement of patents for drugs for breast cancer treatment, including an application to amend Sanofi Aventis' patents.

- An application by Aventis Pharma and Sanofi Aventis for a Court determination under the Medicines Act (Cap 176) on issues concerning false patent declarations made by a generic company.
- Advised several clients on potential Uniform Dispute Resolution Policies (UDRP) and Singapore Domain Name Resolution Policies (SDRP) disputes.
- Acting for a Singapore Registered Fund Management Company against founders of an Israeli augmented reality / virtual reality (AR/VR) start-up in various disputes concerning defamatory statements, harassment and extortion.
- Acting for a Singapore Registered Fund Management Company in a dispute concerning defamatory statements, harassment, extortion as well as breaches under the Singapore Computer Misuse Act by an Australian fixer firm. The issues concern potential investments in the sum of US$150M into a medical technology start-up.

Civil, Corporate & Commercial Disputes

- Lead counsel in matters representing a leading fitness / lifestyle content creator and YouTube personality (with a following of 24.4M subscribers on YouTube) against a media company and another content creator in defamation and harassment proceedings (DC 131/2021).
- Lead counsel successfully representing Chef Violet Oon (a multiple award winning celebrity chef) and her children Mr Tay Yiming and Ms Tay Su-lyn, shareholders of Violet Oon Inc Pte Ltd and obtaining a “rare” and ground-breaking buy-out order against their 50% shareholder on the basis of economic duress, undue influence and oppression [2024] SGHC 13.
- Lead counsel in a matter representing a top performing hedge fund in a dispute concerning claims amounting to almost US$10M.
- Represented an ultra-high net worth individual in an action concerning defamation, malicious falsehood and disputes involving shareholdings in an Indonesian listed company worth over US$1 billion. The action resulted in an unprecedented award of damages for malicious falsehood and defamation of over SG$130 million in total. (Court of Appeal case of Low Tuck Kwong v Sukanto Sia [2013] SGCA 61).
- Advising an Israel-based company in relation to an arbitration dispute under SIAC Rules concerning agreements for the purchase of cryptocurrency tokens.
- Acting for the world’s top performing hedge fund in mid-2020 and its founder in an investment dispute into Cayman-based funds concerning claims amounting to around US$10M.
- Representing a leading agri-business conglomerate on various matters concerning breach of confidentiality and employment law issues
- Representing a leading sports media network entity in a dispute against its former top executive. The arbitration under SIAC Rules relate to alleged breach of a loan agreement.
- Representing well known F&B brands in a highly contentious shareholder dispute.
- Advising a US subsidiary of a Singapore-listed company in a multi-jurisdictional arbitration dispute under SIAC Rules involving defects in an engineering project.
- Advising a local healthcare practice in relation to disputes concerning infringement of IP, employment and breach of duties.
- Represented a well-established healthcare and wellness company in the Singapore High Court involving shareholder disputes involving claims of over S$20m and successfully defended a winding up petition in a related action.
- Represented a subsidiary of a Singapore listed F&B giant and franchisee of a well-known restaurant chain in a construction dispute.
- Represented a local subsidiary of one of the largest manufacturers of automotive parts in Japan in various disputes concerning breach of contract, breach of confidence and employment issues.
- Advising a subsidiary of a publicly listed coal mining company in Indonesia against well-known resource and power companies in Singapore and India in ongoing contractual disputes.
