ABOUT TONY

Tony is the Managing Director of our Intellectual Property department, and a Director in our Dispute Resolution department. He also heads our Healthcare & Life Sciences Practice. Tony is currently representing leading biotech and pharmaceutical companies such as Sanofi-Aventis and Novartis; government statutory boards such as Sentosa Development Corporation, and Health Promotion Board; as well as listed companies such as PT Bayan Resources Tbk and Manhattan Resources Ltd.

Tony is a litigator with an active court practice as an advocate. He has acted as lead counsel in many complex matters, including numerous patent infringement cases. He is experienced in intellectual property litigation and enforcement including patent, trade mark, and copyright litigation. His civil and commercial litigation practice includes banking litigation and contract disputes.

Tony was appointed by the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore (IPOS) as an IP Adjudicator to hear disputes at IPOS for a two-year term from April 2019. He is also the President of the International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property (AIPPI) – Singapore Group, a member of the Law Society's Inquiry Committee and Disciplinary Tribunal, and a member of the Examination Board at IPOS for registered patent agents.

As a testament to his expertise in the field, Tony co-authored the Singapore chapter of Global Pharmacovigilance Laws & Regulations: The Essential Reference, which has been described as a "ground-breaking book" and a "landmark guide" published by the US based Food and Drug Law Institute. He was also invited to co-author the Singapore chapter of the inaugural Patent Enforcement in the UK and Trans-Pacific Countries published by Globe Law and Business. The book is an essential guide for private practitioners, in-house lawyers and other professional in the Trans-Pacific region. Tony also co-wrote the the Singapore section of the Chapter on Countries with Historical Connections with UK Registered Designs in Russell-Clarke & Howe on Industrial Designs, 10th Edition, Sweet & Maxwell, 2022.

Under his guidance and leadership, Drew & Napier clinched double win at the Managing IP Asia-Pacific Awards 2022, winning both the Singapore Trademark Contentious Firm of the Year and Singapore Trademark Prosecution Firm of the Year.

EXPERIENCE

Tony has been involved in many high profile matters. Here are just a few recent cases:

- Acted as an IP Adjudicator at the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore to adjudicate a significant Trade Mark matter involving two well-known watchmakers. In Rolex S.A. v FMTM Distribution Ltd [2020] SGIPOS 6, Rolex S.A.'s opposition against an Application Mark filed by the Franck Muller Group was allowed on grounds of confusing similarity and passing off under the Trade Marks Act. As the opposition was successful, registration of the Application Mark was refused.
- Representing Ila Technologies Pte Ltd, an industry leader in state-of-the-art lab grown diamond technology, in a patent infringement suit commenced by Element Six Technologies Ltd, a subsidiary of the De Beers Group, in HC/Suit No. 26/2016, CA 41/2020 and CA 96/2020, including a counterclaim by Ila Technologies Pte Ltd to revoke Element Six Technologies Ltd's patents in the Singapore High Court. The matter is now pending the Court of Appeal's decision in CA 41 and CA 96.
- Acting as lead counsel representing Novartis AG and Novartis (Singapore) Pte Ltd in an ongoing patent infringement action

(HC/S 206/2022) involving a patent in relation to the drug with the active ingredients valsartan and sacubitril under the brand name “ENTRESTO”.

- Acting as lead counsel for Sums Resource Pte Ltd and Dato Low Tuck Kwong in an ongoing dispute in HC/S 736/2021 involving issues of contract law, misrepresentation and unjust enrichment. The dispute relates to an undersea internet cable network connecting Singapore and Indonesia.
- Acted as lead counsel for Tanaka Electronics Singapore (Pte.) Ltd. in a Singapore High Court patent infringement action in Singapore HC/Suit No. 606/2020 in which we defended the patent infringement action. The action was part of the global patent litigation dispute with Nippon Steel Chemical & Material Co., Ltd. and Nippon Micrometal Corporation. Tanaka Electronic Singapore (Pte.) Ltd. owns a manufacturing facility in Singapore manufacturing bonding wires for semiconductors. Nippon Steel alleged that Tanaka Electronics Singapore (Pte.) Ltd. infringed Singapore Patent No. 2010038305 and prayed for, amongst others, an injunction. Tanaka Electronic Singapore (Pte.) Ltd. has denied infringement and has put in issue the validity of the asserted patent claims. The Singapore action has since been discontinued.
- Acting as lead counsel representing tenant TheSeafoodCompany Pte Ltd in an ongoing action (HC/S 324/2022) for breach of contract and/or wilful default against HSBC Institutional Trust Services (Singapore) Limited (in its capacity as trustee of ARA LOGO Logistics Trust) (“HSBC”), and negligence and/or gross negligence against HSBC and ARA Logos Property Management Pte Ltd for damages caused as a result of a collapsed ceiling leading to damaged goods. The claims are in excess of S$8 million dollars.
- Acted as lead counsel for Ziptrak Pty Ltd, in a High Court trade mark infringement and passing off action against defendants Space+ Pte Ltd and Space Plus Pte Ltd in the Singapore High Court in HC/S 787/2020. Ziptrak Pty Ltd is a global market leader in the manufacture and sale of track-guided blinds marketed under the “Ziptrak” brand. Ziptrak Pty Ltd has sued the defendants in Singapore for using “Ziptrak” on track-guided blinds.
- Successfully represented and acted as lead counsel for Golden Village Multiplex Pte Ltd (“Golden Village”), Singapore’s leading cinema operator, in defending Golden Village in the Singapore High Court in HC/S 1155/2019, commenced by Composers and Authors Society of Singapore Limited (“COMPASS”) in relation to the payment of royalties for the public performance of musical works in the films screened at Golden Village’s cinemas. The suit includes a counterclaim by Golden Village for breach of contract and misrepresentation by COMPASS.
- Currently advising a client in a potential arbitration action before the International Chamber of Commerce involving the sale of advanced technology equipment.
- Successfully represented TWG Tea Company Pte Ltd (“TWG Tea”), a subsidiary of public listed OSIM International Ltd, in HC/S 799/2017. TWG Tea is a home-grown brand famous for its luxury tea boutiques and salons. The action was started TWG Tea against a former office holder and shareholder of TWG Tea (“Defendant”) for the return of TWG Tea domain name. Also successfully represented TWG Tea and two of its office holders in the counterclaim brought by the Defendant for malicious falsehood, unjust enrichment and conspiracy. On 3 May 2019, the High Court rendered Judgment in favour of TWG Tea for its claims for its domain name and dismissed all of the Defendant’s counterclaims against TWG Tea and two of its office holders ([2019] SGHC 117).
- Represented Becton Dickinson Medical (S) Pte Ltd (“Becton Dickinson”), a global leading medical technology company, in a patent infringement suit commenced by B. Braun Melsungen AG (“B. Braun”) in HC/Suit 655/2018, in relation to medical catheters. Becton Dickinson had also resisted B. Braun’s application to amend its patent in Suit and had counterclaimed for, inter alia, a declaration of non-infringement and a declaration that B. Braun’s patent is invalid. This suit was part of ongoing litigation and contentious proceedings in various jurisdictions between Becton Dickinson and B. Braun.

- Acting as lead counsel representing Novartis AG and Novartis (Singapore) Pte Ltd in an ongoing patent infringement action (HC/Suit 1062/2019) involving a patent in relation to the drug with the active ingredient imatinib and marketed under the brand name GLIVEC®. Also acted as lead counsel in relation to the same drug in HC/S 1298/2014, HC/S 44/2015, HC/S 1061/2015, HC/S 685/2016, HC/S 784/2017 and HC/S 1035/2018.
- Acted as lead counsel representing Sentosa Development Corporation, a statutory board, in Suit 1084/2014, in an action involving the use of the well-known SENTOSA trade mark. This action also involves Rule 13 of the Trade Mark Rules, governing, inter alia, the registration of a mark which bears the name or initials of any government body or statutory board. This included advising Sentosa Development Corporation on related trade mark revocation and invalidation proceedings before IPOS.
- Acted as lead counsel for Aventis Pharma S.A. and Sanofi-Aventis Singapore Pte Ltd in a patent infringement action involving an invention relating to drugs for breast cancer treatments (Suit No. 305/2010/Y). Tony represented the patent owner and the exclusive licensee. The drug involved, TAXOTERE®, forms the subject matter of the patents involved in the litigation, and is one of the Group's leading oncology drug available in more than 100 countries.
- Successfully assisted to represent the client in Suit 703/2008/X concerning disputes over defamation, malicious falsehood and shareholdings in an Indonesian listed company in the coal mining business. In the recent Court of Appeal decision in Low Tuck Kwong v Sukanto Sia [2013] SGCA 61, the Court of Appeal reversed the Trial Judge's decision on several aspects in the client's favour.
- Successfully represented a Singapore listed company in Suit 207/2009 against the company's ex-chief executive officer for alleged breach of director's duties in the High Court decision of Scintronix Corp Ltd (formerly known as TTL Holdings Ltd) v Ho Kang Peng and another [2013] SGHC 34. The Court of Appeal affirmed the High Court's decision in Ho Kang Peng v Scintronix Corp Ltd [2014] SGCA 22
- Successfully represented the client to amend the patent in litigation in the Singapore High Court decision of Novartis AG and Novartis (Singapore) Pte Ltd v Ranbaxy (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd [2012] SGHC 253.
- Acted as lead counsel in an application by Aventis Pharma S.A and Sanofi-Aventis Singapore Pte Ltd in Originating Summons 991/2011/L for a Court determination under Section 16(1B)(c) of the Medicines Act (Cap 176) on issues concerning patent declarations made by another pharmaceutical company to the Health Sciences Authority of Singapore for product licenses. TAXOTERE® is also the drug which forms the subject matter of the patents involved.
- Acted as lead counsel representing Novartis AG and Novartis (Singapore) Pte Ltd in a patent infringement action involving an invention relating to drugs for hypertension treatment, involving the drug VALSARTAN® in Suit 150/2011/R, Suit 1085/2012/G and Suit 537/2013.
- Representing a client in a dispute involving a joint venture agreement for the development of a plant to produce upgraded coal in Suit 940/2011/N.
- Advised Health Promotion Board on matters like the use of a slogan during Health Promotion Board's marketing campaign and issues related to contractual breaches.
