ABOUT ABHINAV

Abhinav represents clients in international arbitration and dispute resolution with a focus on India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, Australia and Europe. He is the first Indian lawyer to be hired by the ICC Court as its Deputy Counsel for the Commonwealth team in Paris and, later, as the first Indian Director of the ICC Court for South Asia in Singapore. In his role as counsel and later Director, Abhinav has administered hundreds of commercial arbitration cases. Abhinav also sits as an arbitrator in ICC, SIAC, LMAA and ad hoc matters panning sectors such as energy, aviation, construction, commercial cases and ship building contracts. He has been appointed on the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC), Reserve Panel of Arbitrators, Singapore, Vienna International Arbitration Centre, panel of arbitrators by the Shanghai Arbitration Commission (SHAC), Shanghai, China; and the panel of arbitrators by the Asia International Arbitration Centre (AIAC), Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. He also serves on the Governing Council of the International Arbitration & Mediation Centre (IAMC), Hyderabad, India.

As Deputy Counsel of the ICC Court, Abhinav assisted the ICC Court in analysing and resolving difficult and cutting-edge issues in international arbitration. In particular, he assisted the ICC Court in the award scrutiny process of international arbitral awards from various jurisdictions.

Abhinav was a part of the ICC Secretariat and its administration of active arbitration cases across a range of sectors including energy, infrastructure, commodities, aviation, pharmaceuticals and others.

Over the years and as Director of ICC Arbitration & ADR Services, he has advised on the interpretation of ICC Rules and the ICC's latest policies on transparency disclosure and costs, including expeditious determination of manifestly unmeritorious claims or defenses and expedited procedures. He is a trusted point of reference for lawyers and in-house counsel in the region for advice on international arbitration, institutional rules, and practice and procedure.

Abhinav has spoken in over 180 international arbitration conferences and training programs around the world.

He was instrumental in establishing the ICC's Singapore case management team in collaboration with the Government of Singapore.
