ABOUT ALEX

Alex has a burgeoning disputes and advisory practice with a focus on employment matters, private client matters, Greater China matters and other commercial matters.

Alex is increasingly the counsel of choice for many Company boards and in-house counsel for Singapore employment work. Alex's employment practice spans a vast breath of contentious and non-contentious matters. Clients, who include some of the world's most admired and fastest growing companies as well as C-suite/senior management figures, regularly lean on Alex's deep employment expertise which blends dispute resolution, structuring capabilities and a HR mindset. Alex routinely advises on structuring employment frameworks and navigating employee exits, employment disputes, investigations and whistleblowing and grievance-handling procedures. Alex's employment practice also includes advising on work performance and PIP issues, remuneration issues, flexible work arrangements, work passes, employment offences, fair hiring obligations and post-employment covenants. Alex also works closely with and supports the firm's Financial Services Regulation team to provide specialised employment advice to a vast array of clients in the financial services space. Alex has been asked to moderate discussions involving Singapore employment regulators.

For private client matters, Alex has acted in a broad range of family and matrimonial matters involving contentious divorce, child custody, spousal/child maintenance issues and property division issues, with experience in navigating high net-worth divorces. Alex has been named by Benchmark Litigation Asia-Pacific 2026 as a Future Star for Family & Matrimonial work.

Alex is also sought after by clients from the Greater China region who value Alex's effective bilingualism (in both written and spoken forms) and his ability to anticipate and meet the needs of this client segment.

Alex has been praised by clients for being "very smart in his moves", "excellent", "efficient" and the "dream team".

A highly energetic, personable and dynamic lawyer, Alex gives back to society by volunteering with the Singapore Mentorship Committee. This involves mentoring university and college students, with the hope of fostering the leaders of tomorrow.

Alex graduated from the National University of Singapore in 2013 with 2nd Class (Upper) Honours in 2013 and was called to the Singapore Bar in 2014.
