ABOUT KELLY

Kelly practices commercial litigation and arbitration. She has handled a diverse range of matters including matters relating to complex commercial contracts, trust disputes, and director / shareholder disputes. She has significant experience in these matters across various industries, such as private equity, banking and finance, hospitality, and retail. In the 2019 edition of Benchmark Litigation Asia-Pacific, Kelly was described as “meticulous and insightful”, and “extremely driven and indefatigable”.

Kelly graduated from the National University of Singapore with a LL.B (Hons) degree in 2016. During her time in university, she participated in the Oxford International Intellectual Property Moot 2016 held in Oxford University, where she was ranked 5th best speaker overall. Her team also emerged as quarter-finalists of the competition and was awarded best written submissions.

EXPERIENCE

Some of the notable cases which Kelly has acted in include:

Litigation

- Securing a US$926 million judgment for a former Prime Minister of Georgia against Credit Suisse Trust Successfully acting for Bidzina Ivanishvili, a former Prime Minister of Georgia, and his family in proceedings before the Singapore International Commercial Court against Credit Suisse Trust Limited for breach of trust leading to losses in an investment portfolio worth over US$1 billion.
- Billion-dollar fraudulent trading case in Singapore
Acting for the liquidators of Hin Leong Trading (Pte.) Ltd in a claim against the company’s directors for fraudulent trading and breach of directors’ duties, seeking recovery of over US$3.5 billion. The dispute involves claims of fabrication of gains, forgery of documents, and manipulation of accounts to conceal massive losses sustained by the company over many years.

- Successfully resisted an application for injunctions to restrain a transfer of shares

Successfully acted for a Singapore venture capital firm, its related entity in the Cayman Islands, and its directors and shareholders, in resisting an application for injunctions to restrain a share transfer filed by a Swiss fund management company. Obtained an award of indemnity costs against the applicant.

- Represented an integrated resort in Singapore High Court proceedings against a Chinese businessman

This case involved claims that there were unauthorised withdrawals and transfers of monies. It attracted significant media attention both locally and globally.

- Represented the founders of an aesthetic medicine chain in resisting claims by an investment holding company

This case involved a claim by the investment holding company for misrepresentation and breaches of share purchase agreements. The claim was for over S$14 million, but the High Court awarded the investment holding company damages amounting to less than 5% of the claim amount. Successfully resisted the investment holding company’s appeal against this decision.

Arbitration

- Acting for a hotel conglomerate in SIAC arbitration proceedings against an Indonesian hotel owner

Currently representing a hotel management conglomerate in a claim against an Indonesian hotel owner for various breaches of a hotel management agreement.

- Advised a Fortune Global 500 healthcare services company on claims made in JCAA arbitration proceedings

Advised the Japanese arm of a multinational healthcare services company on claims of breaches of distributorship agreements and misrepresentation against a Japanese pharmaceutical company.

- Acted for an insurance company in SIAC arbitration proceedings against a bank

This case concerned the novel issue of interpreting an acceleration clause in a non-payment insurance policy.
