ABOUT RON

Ron is the Head of the Investment Funds practice at Drew & Napier LLC. He is a leading practitioner in the Singapore funds industry with over 20 years of experience.

Ron is ranked as a Leading Individual in The Legal 500 in the field of Investment Funds. He has consistently garnered accolades from various other publications based on client and peer reviews.

He acts as lead counsel in the establishment of alternative investment funds across various legal structures (such as Singapore variable capital companies (VCCs), limited partnerships, unit trusts, companies, business trusts, and Cayman segregated portfolio companies), and their downstream PE/VC/M&A investments. He advises clients on the establishment of licensed, registered or exempt fund managers, financial advisers and trust companies in Singapore, and various regulatory matters.

He provides legal support to investors investing into various investment funds, portfolio companies, industries, and asset classes. He is adept at advising on upstream as well as downstream funds work, including the execution of legal due diligence work on portfolio companies and acting for lead investors in fund-raising rounds.

Ron assists clients with obtaining various licences and statuses pertaining to fund management, dealing in capital markets products, the provision of financial advisory services, trust business or custodial services, and other regulated activities in Singapore. He provides clients with bespoke regulatory advice in these highly technical areas.

Over the years, Ron has also advised on domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, financing, and employment law-related work.

His clientele consists of local individuals and organisations as well as multinational and international clients, particularly in the funds industry.

EXPERIENCE

Some of the matters in which Ron has handled include:

Investment Funds / Private Equity

- Establishing private equity, venture capital, hedge, cryptocurrency, real estate, and other types of funds which are typically structured as VCCs, limited partnerships, unit trusts or private limited corporations.
- Advising clients on obtaining various types of capital markets services licences (CMS licences), the now-repealed registered fund management company (RFMC) status, or the establishment of single-family offices (SFOs), in Singapore.
- Advising on the acquisition of various licensed fund management companies and registered fund management companies in Singapore.
- Advising an Israeli listed group of companies on obtaining a capital markets services licence in fund management for venture capital funds and establishing a venture capital fund, of which a government-linked entity is a lead investor.
- Advising a Dutch pension fund asset manager as lead investor in a private equity transaction, involving a tax-exempted fund managed by a related corporation of a major Indian real estate developer.

- Advising an Indonesian State-owned entity on its investments into a VCC which invests into non-performing loans in Indonesia.
- Advising fund structures (including Feeder-Master-SPV structures) on applying for the section 13O or section 13U tax incentive schemes.
- Advising funds with non-tradable listing on their compliance requirements with the Monetary Authority of Singapore and the Singapore Exchange.
- Advising major international banks and private funds on their funds regulatory compliance issues, including notification of restricted schemes and annual declarations, and advising on their distributorship agreements.
- Advising a private fund on a financing deal involving a shipping business trust.

Mergers & Acquisitions / Joint Ventures / Corporate Restructuring

- Advising a major snack company from Germany in their joint venture with an Indian company specialising in the production of cashew nuts and the parties' subsequent multi-million-dollar investments into the joint venture company.
- Advising a Singapore corporation in its sale of the ERA real estate group of companies.
- Advising a Singapore subsidiary of a United States-based conglomerate in its private acquisition of shares in a Singapore company (involving the transfer of a JTC property) for S$35 million.
- Advising a United States-based conglomerate on the amalgamation of two of its Singapore subsidiaries, one of which is the registered owner of a JTC property.
- Advising an SGX-listed company in the construction industry on its proposed participation as leading member of a Consortium in the design, construction, and operation of a new international airport structured as a Build-Operate-Transfer project.
- Advising an SGX-listed Bermuda company in its acquisition of selected assets (including land, buildings, plant, and machineries) worth about S$20 million from a ceramics company in China.

Corporate Finance / Capital Markets

- Advising an institutional guarantor and the foreign issuer in relation to the update of an existing multi-currency euro-certificates of deposit programme (and the related security documentation) to, inter alia, increase the programme size to an amount of A$3 billion.
- Advising a corporate finance advisory firm on a private placement exercise of S$6 million worth of shares to placees in Hong Kong and Singapore.
- Advising a trade-related financial services provider in its investment into a fund specialising in trading receivables.
- Advising a Japanese conglomerate in their pre-IPO cornerstone investment of about S$50 million in a listed commercial trust and an investment of about S$765,000 in a business space fund.
- Advising the manager of a real estate investment trust which was proposed to be listed on the SGX-ST.

Employment Law

- Advising various clients on employment law issues in Singapore, such as contract formation, employee share option schemes, termination of employment, leave and retrenchment benefits, employee insurance, and the duties and liabilities of employers and employees.
