ABOUT SYLVIA

Sylvia is an Associate Director in the Corporate and Mergers & Acquisitions Practice Groups.

Sylvia's practice encompasses domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, as well as a wide range of transactional and corporate commercial matters. She advises start-ups, private equity firms and multinational corporations across diverse industries on their joint ventures, corporate reorganisations, acquisitions, divestments and funding rounds. This involves providing end-to-end support throughout the transaction's lifecycle – from conducting legal due diligence to preparing transactional documents and assisting with post-closing implementation and integration.

In addition to transactional work, Sylvia also assists clients with their general corporate advisory matters, including entity formation, corporate governance, regulatory compliance, contract drafting and the legal aspects of day-to-day business operations.

Sylvia regularly advises employers on a full spectrum of employment law issues. This includes employment agreements, terminations and retrenchments, workplace investigations, compliance obligations and the development and review of internal employment handbooks and policies.

Within the healthcare sector, Sylvia has experience advising on regulatory and commercial matters involving biotechnology, medical devices and healthcare services.
